- (i) the master;
 - (ii) the qualified deck officer who is in charge of the navigational watch;
 - (iii) a qualified able seafarer deck; or
 - (iv) a person who holds a certificate of proficiency.

Part 3

Application for and Issue of Certificates of Proficiency

6. Application for issue of certificates of proficiency

- (1) A person may apply to the Authority for the issue of a certificate of proficiency.
- (2) The application must be accompanied by—
 - (a) any evidence as may be necessary to establish that the requirements for the issue of the certificate being applied for have been satisfied; and
 - (b) the prescribed fee.
- (3) On receipt of the application, the Authority—
 - (a) if satisfied that the applicant is entitled to the issue of the certificate being applied for, may issue the certificate to the applicant; or
 - (b) if not satisfied that the applicant is so entitled, must inform the applicant in writing that the application is refused, stating the reasons for the refusal.
- (4) If an applicant is aggrieved by a decision of the Authority to refuse to issue a certificate of proficiency, the applicant may appeal against the decision to the Administrative Appeals Board.

7. Requirements for issue of certificates of proficiency

- (1) The Authority must not issue a certificate of proficiency to an applicant unless the requirements for the issue of the certificate are satisfied.
- (2) The requirements are that the applicant—

- (a) is a registered person;
 - (b) is a rating; and
 - (c) has met the requirements specified in Regulation II/4, paragraphs 2.2, 2.3 and 3 of the Convention.
- (3) The Authority may make determinations in writing specifying—
- (a) the details of the standards of competency to be attained or the conditions to be satisfied by an applicant to qualify for the issue of a certificate of proficiency; or
 - (b) the manner in which the attainment of any such standards or the satisfaction of any such conditions is to be established.

8. Recognition of other certificates as equivalent to certificate of proficiency

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 4 and 5.
 - (2) If the Authority is satisfied that a certificate—
 - (a) is issued by, or under the authority of, the government of a state party to the Convention;
 - (b) is issued not on the basis of recognition by such a government of any certificate issued by another government; and
 - (c) shows that the person concerned has met the requirements referred to in section 7(2)(c) for the issue of a certificate of proficiency,the Authority may recognize the certificate as equivalent to a certificate of proficiency.

Part 4

Miscellaneous

9. Loss of certificates of proficiency

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), if a certificate of proficiency issued to a person has been lost, defaced or destroyed, the Authority may cancel the certificate and issue to the person another certificate in like terms on payment of the prescribed fee.
- (2) A certificate issued under subsection (1) has the same effect as the certificate lost, defaced or destroyed.
- (3) The Authority may only issue a certificate under subsection (1) if the Authority is satisfied that the certificate to be replaced has in fact been lost, defaced or destroyed.
- (4) The Authority may waive or reduce the prescribed fee referred to in subsection (1) if the Authority is satisfied that the certificate to be replaced has been lost, defaced or destroyed without fault on the part of the person to whom it was issued.

10. False pretences and supply of false information

- (1) A person who, in connection with an application for, or the issue of, a certificate of proficiency—
 - (a) makes a false pretence; or
 - (b) supplies false information,knowing it to be false or not believing it to be true commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 5 and to imprisonment for 2 years.
- (2) A person who—

- (a) permits any other person to use a certificate of proficiency to which that other person is not entitled; or
- (b) falsely pretends to be entitled to a certificate of proficiency, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 5 and to imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3) If a person is convicted of—
 - (a) an offence under subsection (1) or (2);
 - (b) the offence of fraud under section 16A of the Theft Ordinance (Cap. 210) in relation to a certificate of proficiency;
 - (c) conspiracy to commit any offence mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b); or
 - (d) conspiracy to defraud in relation to a certificate of proficiency, the Authority may cancel or suspend for any period the certificate of proficiency concerned held by the person.

11. Record of certificates of proficiency

The Authority must keep a record of—

- (a) all certificates of proficiency;
- (b) the cancellation or suspension of the certificates; and
- (c) any other matters affecting the certificates.

12. Exemption

- (1) The Authority may grant exemptions from all or any of the provisions of this Regulation for classes of cases or individual cases on such conditions, if any, as the Authority thinks fit.

- (2) The Authority may, subject to giving reasonable notice, alter or cancel any exemption granted under subsection (1).

13. Offences and penalties

- (1) A company who contravenes section 4 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 5 and to imprisonment for 2 years.
- (2) A master who contravenes section 4 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 3 and to imprisonment for 2 years.

14. Transitional provision

- (1) During the transitional period, a contravention of section 4(1) does not constitute an offence under section 13.
- (2) In this section—
transitional period (過渡期間) means the period beginning on 1 December 2016 and ending on 31 December 2016.

Explanatory Note

The International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watchkeeping for Seafarers, 1978 (Convention) sets out a comprehensive set of global standards on the training and certification of seafarers and watchkeeping, in order to promote the safety of life and property at sea and the protection of the marine environment. The latest substantial amendments to the Convention were adopted by the International Conference on Training and Certification of Seafarers in Manila, the Philippines in 2010 (Manila Amendments) and are to be implemented by 1 January 2017. The Convention as revised by the Manila Amendments applies to Hong Kong.

2. The main purpose of this Regulation is to implement the requirements relating to navigational watch under the Convention as revised by the Manila Amendments.

Part 1—Preliminary

3. Part 1 provides for the commencement, the interpretation of certain terms and the scope of application of the Regulation.

Part 2—Navigational watch

4. Part 2 provides for the qualification or certificate that a seafarer must obtain before the seafarer is assigned to form part of a navigational watch on a ship.
5. The Part also provides for exceptions, such as when a seafarer carries out a duty for the purpose of obtaining a certificate of proficiency.

Part 3—Application for and issue of certificates of proficiency

6. Part 3 provides for the application for, and the requirements for the issue of, certificates of proficiency.
7. The Part also provides that certain certificates issued by, or under the authority of, the government of a state party to the Convention are recognized as equivalent to a certificate of proficiency.

Part 4—Miscellaneous

8. Part 4 provides for miscellaneous matters, including the keeping of a record of certificates of proficiency, the grant of exemptions, and offences and penalties.
