

BUILDINGS ORDINANCE (Chapter 123)

It is hereby notified that the Registered Contractors' Disciplinary Board ('the Board') conducted an inquiry under section 13 of the Buildings Ordinance (Chapter 123) ('the Ordinance') on 13 December 2022 and was satisfied that Tysan Foundation Limited ('the Contractor'), which is a registered specialist contractor ('RSC') on the register of specialist contractors under section 8A(1)(b) of the Ordinance, appointed as the RSC in respect of the bored pile construction works at the residential development at 106–114 Kwok Shui Road, Tsuen Wan, New Territories ('the subject site'), was convicted of an offence relating to building works, in that:—

the Contractor, directly concerned with the foundation works at the subject site, was convicted on 6 January 2017 at the Tsuen Wan Magistrates' Courts of the offence of having carried out such works in such manner that it caused injury to persons, in contravention of section 40(2B)(a) and section 40(2B)(c) of the Ordinance in respect of a fatal incident relating to bored pile construction works on 8 July 2011 at the subject site.

The Board ordered that:—

- (a) the Contractor be reprimanded; and
- (b) the Contractor shall pay the costs of inquiry of the Board in the sum of HK$101,490.
