

BUILDINGS ORDINANCE (Chapter 123)

It is hereby notified that the Registered Contractors' Disciplinary Board ('the Board') conducted an inquiry under section 13 of the Buildings Ordinance (Chapter 123) ('the Ordinance') on 11 June 2025 and was satisfied that CR Construction Company Limited ('the Contractor'), being a registered general building contractor on the register of general building contractors under section 8A(1)(a) of the Ordinance, and appointed in the capacity of registered general building contractor in respect of the construction works for a construction site at Tung Chung Town Lot No. 38RP, Lantau Island, Hong Kong ('the Subject Site'), was convicted on 3 January 2022 at the West Kowloon Magistrates' Courts of an offence relating to building works in respect of an industrial incident at the Subject Site on 29 June 2019. The Contractor, being a proprietor of the Industrial Undertaking, be guilty of a like offence which has been committed by another proprietor, namely Sure Millions Engineering Limited, in respect of the Industrial Undertaking, against sections 6A(1), 6A(2)(a), 6A(3) and 13(1) of the Factories and Industrial Undertakings Ordinance (Chapter 59), namely, failed to provide and maintain a system of work for unpacking, sorting and moving of aluminium panels that were, so far as was reasonable practicable, safe and without risks to health of the persons employed by Sure Millions Engineering Limited at the Industrial Undertaking.

The Board ordered that:—

- (a) the Contractor be reprimanded;
- (b) the Contractor shall pay the costs of the inquiry of the Board assessed at the amount of HK$62,900; and
- (c) the Contractor shall pay the costs of the Building Authority assessed at the amount of HK$25,500.

15 August 2025 LAM Siu-kwong, Andy Chairman, Registered Contractors' Disciplinary Board